

KENEALLY STATE CABINET

Embargoed until 3.15pm Tuesday, 8th December 2009

Premier of NSW, Ms Kristina Keneally, today announced her State Cabinet.

“This cabinet will put the NSW community first,” Ms Keneally said.

“We are about rebuilding trust with the community.

“We are about delivering on core services - health, education, transport and putting care for the most vulnerable at the heart of government.

“And we are about stability. Most Ministers retain their duties and I am pleased to bring back the skills and knowledge of Mr Frank Sartor and Mr Ian Macdonald.

“The Minister for Industrial Relations is being tasked to prepare Working Together, an agreement with Unions NSW to build the state’s economy, increase employment and promote social justice.

“There is now a Minister for the State Plan – our long-term plan to drive improved performance and accountability in delivering services to the people of New South Wales.

“We have just completed an update of the State Plan following extensive community consultation.

“The Minister for the State Plan will have a seat on the Budget Committee of Cabinet.”

In addition, the Treasurer will also serve as Special Minister of State, with responsibility for the delivery of the Nation Building and Jobs Plan Stimulus Package.

“This team will help NSW lead the nation’s economic recovery while caring for those who need our help most,” Ms Keneally said.

Ms Keneally said the State Parliamentary Labor caucus would work together and for the community – and will return for a special caucus meeting on December 17 to prepare for the challenges ahead.
